VIII. SPECIAL RECOGNITION

- 1. Recognition of Susie Gass and the Floyd County Finance Department for a Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting by the Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada (GFOA) for its comprehensive annual financial report (CAFR). The Certificate of Achievement is the highest form of recognition in the area of governmental accounting and financial reporting, and its attainment represents a significant accomplishment by a government and its management. This is the 34th year this award has been received by the County and is the 29th year straight year we have received the award.
- 2. Recognition of Tim Herrington and Floyd County Emergency Management Agency for meeting the incentive standards outlined in the Georgia Emergency Management Agency/Homeland Security (GEMA/Homeland Security) Federal-State-Local Disaster Match Policy. This achievement was accomplished by many hours of hard work by EMA Director, Tim Herrington. The work included the development of four operational recovery plans, participation in the National Flood Insurance Program, the establishment and training of a local Preliminary Damage Assessment Team(s), completion of yearly standards as outlined in GEMA/Homeland Security's Emergency Management Performance Grant Program (EMPG), and the county's designation as a StormReady Community by the National Weather Service.
- 3. Recognition of Keith Mickler, UGA Cooperative Extension Coordinator in Floyd County, from the Georgia Green Industry Association (GGIA) as the 2017 GGIA Communicator of the Year Award. This award honors an individual who best serves the horticulture industry in Georgia through the media and other forms of promotion. To growers and gardeners from all corners of Georgia, Mickler is well-known for his contributions and his commitment to communicating the good news about the green industry.
