Item #2 – No Public Comments

Item #3 – No Opening Remarks

Mr. Miller asked for the purpose of adopting a resolution for the school boards' call for special elections. Dr. Green noted that it was a best practice and not a state law or SEB rule. The Board indicated a number of concerns regarding the resolution and wanted to obtain more information on the resolution's wording. Dr. Green indicated that he would put Board members in touch with the attorney providing the resolution for additional clarification. Mr. Miller asked for more clarification on the number of weeks to run the ad calling for special elections. Mr. Miller pointed out details of the SPLOST resolutions and differences.

Motion #07242017_2	Yea	Nay	Action
A motion was made by Mr. Miller adopting the Board's resolution calling for a special election referendum to be placed on the ballot for the school systems. Dr. Rees seconded the motion.	Rees Miller Haynes-Jackson		Motion passed

Mr. Miller indicated that he was signing the receipt for the Acknowledgement of the Resolution. Mrs. Haynes-Jackson asked about the deadline for returning the documents back to attorney Terri Finister.

Dr. Green noted the procedures and policies for the Personnel Board regarding the certification of the elections. The Personnel Board indicated that no other candidates beyond Mr. Chubb qualified. Dr. Green recommended a motion to create a set of by-laws for the Board to include information on the Personnel Board and other items.

Motion #07242017_3	Yea	Nay	Action
A motion was made by Mr. Miller for creating a set of Board by-laws. Haynes-Jackson seconded the motion.	Rees Miller Haynes-Jackson		Motion passed

Dr. Green discussed plans with the Board regarding the Poll Officer Appreciation. The event will have about 200 guest at a cost of about $350.00 and will include some poll officers receiving plaques for their service. Mrs. Haynes-Jackson inquired about the agenda for the event.
